POWERFUL. FEMALE-FRONTED. ALTERNATIVE ROCK

Would You Kindly? is a vibrant rock band from Kenosha, WI. They have a unique sound incorporating electric violin with a blended influence of modern rock, pop, and jazz. First hitting the stage in 2019, Would You Kindly? is known for their originals including “Ain’t That a Shame”, “Charlatan”, and WAMI Award winning single “Blood in the Water”.

Would You Kindly? began with Gina Marie (Vocals) and Paul Hoskins (Guitar), later inviting Daniel Harrison (Bass), Megan Weaver (Violin), and Haven Wells (Drums). Getting their start in the local open mic scene, Would You Kindly? was named "Kenoshans Of The Week" by Kenosha.com for believing in being a huge support to the regional community.

They sponsor Make Music Kenosha presented by the NAMM Foundation, headline for Kenosha Pride, and play for Taste of Wisconsin in support of Kiwanis. They also have had the amazing opportunity to play for large festivals such as Summerfest, Illinois State Fair, Lake County (IL) Fair, Celebrate America by Happenings Magazine, Rhythm on the Lake by Kenosha County Parks, Lake Geneva Concerts in the Park, and Bands By The Boardwalk sponsored by Karben4 Brewing. Would You Kindly? has performed alongside a variety of talent such as Royal Bliss, Edge of Destiny, ARTIFAS, The Almas, and Saint Tragedy.

Fall of 2021, Would You Kindly? held their first album release party at the famous Route 20 in Racine, WI. Named after their popular original, The Aftermath is a story about trauma and the long road to recovery from domestic violence and abuse. In 2022, they had the honor of recording the theme song “Why We Do It. (feat. Cameron Fair)” for The ArtSpace Podcast. Spring of 2023, Would You Kindly? released their awaited EP Queen of Hearts at the amazing Public Brewing Co. in Kenosha, WI. A continuation of their debut album, Queen of Hearts is about taking back your power, owning your identity, and living unapologetically.

Most recently in October 2024, Would You Kindly? released their second full length album home. at the remarkable Club Icon in Kenosha, WI. home. is a testament to the human condition; it is about being your truest self while finding the mental, emotional, and physical place that is your safe space—your home.
